

MECHANICAL VENTILATION AND HEAT RECOVERY (DOMESTIC) INSTALLER

BPEC (MVHR)

Course Overview:

This BPEC accredited course will enable you to install and/or inspect the four common ventilation systems defined in Part F of the building regulations. This is to commission and handover the system. It will also provide an understanding of the legal issues surrounding the installation of these systems and the guidance on completion and submission of all the appropriate notifications to the building control department.

Who Is This Course For:

This course is aimed at delegates who have five years or more experience in the plumbing, heating or electrical engineering sectors or those who hold a formal qualification at NVQ Level 3 in these areas.

Key Learning Areas Covered in This Course:

- Background and Building Regulations
- Domestic ventilation in context
- Airflow requirements and calculations
- Health and safety
- Install the common types of domestic ventilation system in the UK safely and efficiently
- Inspect and test any of the common types of domestic ventilation systems in the UK
- Commission and provide information for any of the common types of domestic ventilation systems in the UK

Course Duration / Fees / Location:

2 day training course, +VAT per delegate. Available in On-site. Accommodation from £98+VAT (including DBB)